

Training Courses & Assessments Terms & Conditions of Business

1. General

The terms and conditions of trade with Sibbald Training Limited (hereafter called the Company) are set out within this document and form the basis of all contracts for quotations and orders unless otherwise specified by the Company. No addition or variation to these conditions will bind the Company unless it is specifically agreed in writing and authorised by a Company manager.

All bookings are initially provisional and are not fully confirmed until the client agrees acceptance and confirms all details within the booking/order form in writing by return email. Only once this acceptance has been received will a booking/order be classed as confirmed, at this time an invoice will be raised and sent to the client.

These terms and conditions are correct at the date shown on the relevant booking/order form. The Company reserves the right to vary them without notice. An updated copy will be supplied to the client if requested.

Scottish law shall apply and Scottish Courts shall settle any disputes. These terms and conditions do not affect any statutory rights available to the client

2. Training Courses – Delegates Requirements

When courses are booked with the company a set of joining instructions will be supplied which details any requirements for the course along with course timings. Delegates are required to be punctual at all courses and sessions as per the timings stated on the joining instructions and may be refused entry to a course where there is late attendance.

Delegates must provide, their own overalls, safety helmets, protective gloves, safety footwear, waterproof clothing, safety glasses/visor, ear defenders and any other personal safety equipment required, for appropriate courses involving practical training.

Delegates must be physically capable of withstanding the rigours of training. If there are any doubts relating to this, the Company may refer the delegate to a GP at no cost to the Company. The onus is entirely with the delegate to ensure his or her fitness to undergo training and the Company does not accept any responsibility in this regard.

Equipment owned by or leased/lent to the Company must not be removed from the training environment. Any damage to Company equipment or property caused by delegates will be invoiced to the relevant client.

Certificates are awarded at the discretion of the Company, and only to those who successfully complete the training satisfactorily.

Consumption of alcohol or non-prescription drugs is not permitted prior or during training. The Company will refuse to train any delegates who infringe this condition and will require them to leave Company premises immediately. Where a delegate is undergoing a course of prescribed drugs they should inform the Company of the nature of the drug and any side effects. The Company may then seek assurance that training can be carried out without risk. The decision of the Company in relation to this is final.

3. Client Supplied Information

Should any information, supplied to the Company for the purposes of preparing a quote prove to be insufficient or inaccurate, the Company reserves the right to amend the quotation to cover any cost differential.

4. Prices

Unless otherwise indicated written quotations remain valid for a period of 30 days from receipt. The Company reserves the right to vary prices, products and services supplied in accordance with changes in circumstances, which may prevail, at any time.

Unless otherwise stated, all prices quoted are exclusive of VAT, which will be charged for the rate at the time of due payment, currently 20%.

5. Settlement Terms

For client accounts with approved credit terms. Payment terms are strictly 30 days from invoice date. Course certification will be held until full payment is made on the matching course invoice.

For Non-Account Customers or Individual Delegates full payment will be required at time of booking confirmation. Entry will not be permitted unless full payment is received. Delegates cannot attend if payment has not been received.

Payments/invoices can be settled using BACS, Credit/Debit Card or Cheque. All training courses/tests booked will include the relevant registration, administration and certification fees within the costs quoted.

6. Health and Safety

Where training is carried out on the Company's premises, all delegates must conform to and comply with the Health and Safety Policy as laid down by the Company. Breaches of this policy may result in the delegate being suspended or excluded from the course and premises.

Where training takes place on premises or areas specified by the client then the client shall ensure that the premises or areas are safe and without risk for employees of the Company. All risk areas must be clearly identified and marked by the client.

7. Cancellation and Postponement

The Company reserve the right to charge a cancellation/postponement fee in respect to all bookings/orders previously confirmed by the client. The following refunds will be made in the event of cancellations/postponements prior to course start date:

- 14 working days* or more - Full refund (as credit note)
- 13-9 working days* - 75% refund (as credit note)
- 8-6 working days* - 50% refund (as credit note)
- 5 working days* or less - no refund
- Delegate no show / late attendance on day of training – no refund

This time does not include any weekends*

Where a late delegate cannot be accepted into a training course*

In the event that the Company are required to carry out work on a client's site or premises and on arrival, are unable to comply with the requirements because the client has failed to supply the necessary resources or personnel then the work will be deemed to have been cancelled by the client and cancellation conditions shall be enforced.

Should it become necessary for the Company to postpone all or any part of a course or other work due to circumstances beyond their control, a mutually agreeable alternative date will be selected on which to complete the work. The Company will not be liable for any costs incurred by the client for such actions.
