

Site Managing Safety Training Scheme

(Site Safety Managers Course)

The Aim of the Course is to:

To assist site management and supervisory personnel to:

- Manage health and safety on site in accordance with the current legal provisions and within the context of their management or supervisory role
- Develop an understanding of their responsibilities and accountability for site health, safety and welfare
- Recognise that a safe site is efficient, economical and productive

The Course Syllabus:

- An introduction to health & safety management
- Managing Health & Safety at Work
- Responsibilities of managers and supervisors
- Measuring, monitoring and auditing health and safety performance
- Provision of information and training
- The control of hazards and risk

Who Must Attend The Course?

All Site Managers and Supervisory Personnel

Course Summary

Candidates will participate in theory lessons and practical exercises all of which are highlighted by the use of OHP & Videos, covering the following,

- Introduction to Health & Safety responsibilities
- Managing Health & Safety
- Responsibilities of managers and supervisors
- Measuring, monitoring and auditing health and safety performance
- Provision of information and training
- Control of hazards and risks

Course Duration

5 days block release

Or

5 days at 1 day per week

Certification

CITB - Site Safety Managers Certificate

Eligible companies are able to claim grants for this training, which will pay for a substantial amount if not all of the training costs, as this course is CITB approved for grant purposes.

Telephone 01501 750900

Email: enquiries@sibbaldtraining.com