

Aims

This course outlines the dangers which can arise from work in proximity to underground services and the requirements for planning and implementing safe systems of work in order to reduce the risk.

The course is in accordance with HSE HSG47 guidance Avoiding Danger from Underground Services.

Who Attends

This course is aimed at contractors, designers, planning supervisors and others concerned with planning, organising, supervising and conducting work near underground services - including utilities, roadworks, construction and demolition work.

Course Content

- Accident statistics involving underground services
- Regulations and guidance
- Avoiding Danger from Underground Services (HSG47)
- Service location
- Safe digging practices
- Permit to work
- Understanding and implementing safe systems of work

Course Duration

This is a one day course.

Maximum Candidates

Maximum attendees: 12 candidates

Qualification Obtained

Delegates successfully completing the course, including the written and practical assessments are awarded a City & Guilds approved certificate.

All certification is subject to the City & Guilds Quality assurance procedure.

Additional Information

PLEASE NOTE all online bookings are provisional until confirmed with you by our training team.