

CITB Temporary Works Supervisor

Aims

The one day Temporary Works Supervisor Training Course is designed to complement the Temporary Works Co-ordinator Training Course (TWCTC) and is designed to provide training for those undertaking the role of Temporary Works Supervisor as defined in BS 5975:2008

The rationale for the Temporary Works Supervisor’s Course is to raise standards and set standards across the industry, and allow a transferable knowledge base between employers avoiding unnecessary supplementary training.

Who Attends

The TWSTC course is designed to assist those on site who have responsibility for supervising temporary works.

Managers and any delegates who work with contractors involved with the planning, procurement and management of temporary works, including those who may undertake a Temporary Works Supervisor role.

Course Content

- Function of module
- Statutory aspects to temporary works
- Avoiding failure
- Role of the TWS

Course Duration

By the end of the TWSTC course of training delegates will:

- Understand the need for and duties of, a Temporary Works Supervisor
- Understand the role of others
- Have a detailed knowledge and understanding of BS5975 in respect of the TWS role

This course is not a temporary works awareness course. It is only concerned with the process of the supervision of temporary works, commonly expressed through the role of the Temporary Works Supervisor. Attendance does not confer competency as a Temporary Works Supervisor; this comes from a mixture of education, training and experience and should be judged by an appropriate senior individual.
